

East Haven World War I Monument names:

Harry R. Bartlett

Cortland V. Birdsell

John B. Healey

William Corcoran

John Liedke

These are the five men from East Haven who died fighting in WWI. The inscription on the monument's plaque reads "East Haven World War Memorial. Not in vain they served. These gave their lives." The names are then listed, followed by five stars. In the center of the plaque, there are two crossed spears draped in a flag and the years 1917 and 1918.
